Vaibhav Lakshmi Chalisa

Introduction

Vaibhav Lakshmi Chalisa is a devotional hymn dedicated to Goddess Lakshmi in her Vaibhav (prosperity and abundance) form. Goddess Vaibhav Lakshmi is worshipped as the divine source of wealth, fortune, prosperity, happiness, and well-being. Devotees recite the Vaibhav Lakshmi Chalisa with faith and devotion to seek blessings for financial stability, family harmony, and spiritual growth.

In Hindu tradition, Goddess Lakshmi is revered as the consort of Lord Vishnu and the goddess of wealth, prosperity, and auspiciousness. The worship of Vaibhav Lakshmi is especially popular on Fridays, when many devotees observe the Vaibhav Lakshmi Vrat and perform special prayers in her honor.

Bin darshan vyaakul adhikaari□ Tumahi achhat dukh sahate
bhaari□

Meaning:

Your divine radiance shines throughout the universe, and no one is as compassionate as You. Please care for me, who is helpless and without support. Remove my difficulties and bless me with devotion. Forgive my mistakes and shortcomings, and grant me Your divine vision. Without Your blessings, I remain restless and burdened by sorrow.

Chaupai

Nahin mohi gyaan buddhi hai tan mein□ Sab jaanat ho apne man
mein□

Roop chaturbhuj karke dhaaran□ Kasht mor ab karahu nivaaran□
Kehi prakaar main karau badaai□ Gyaan buddhi mohi nahin
adhikaai□

Meaning:

I do not possess sufficient wisdom or knowledge, but You know everything that resides within my heart. Please reveal Your beautiful four-armed divine form and remove all my troubles. I am unable to fully praise Your greatness because my understanding and intelligence are limited.

Final Doha

Traahi traahi dukh haarini, haro vegi sab traas□
Jayati jayati jai Lakshmi, karo shatru ko naash□

Ramdas dhari dhyaan nit, vinay karat kar jor□
Maatu Lakshmi daas par, karahu daya ki kor□

Meaning:

O remover of suffering, quickly destroy all fears, troubles, and sorrows. Victory to Goddess Lakshmi, who destroys negativity and obstacles. The devotee Ramdas constantly meditates upon You and offers prayers with folded hands. O Mother Lakshmi, please shower Your mercy and compassion upon Your humble servant.
